

Computer Center	TALENT (VO): There are a number of on-campus locations where computers are available for student use. These facilities have both Macintosh and IBM computers, both with laser printers.
Museum of Art & Archeology, Anthropology Museum	TALENT (VO): There are several museums on campus, including the Museum of Art and Archeology and the Anthropology Museum.
Jesse Auditorium, with a performance in progress.	TALENT (VO): Outside activities include live drama...
Concert at Hearnes Center	TALENT (VO): ...concerts of all types...
Tigers (football and basketball), then intermurals at Brewer Fieldhouse.	TALENT (VO): ...intercollegiate, sports as well as intermurals and individual sports.
Brady Commons activities	TALENT (VO): Brady Commons offers bowling, a snack bar, a book store, a computer store, and much more.
Shots around Columbia, including the malls, the airport, downtown, parks, MKT Trail, theaters.	TALENT (VO): Columbia is a town of just over sixty thousand people. Yet it is only two hours away from Kansas City and St. Louis. The town is serviced by a regional airport as well as bus lines. And the town offers a wide range of outside activities, such as shopping, parks, a hiking/biking trail, and a number of movie theaters.